

Beautiful Bedroom Furniture

We take particular pride in the fact that we carry at all times a stock of bedroom furniture that is second to none in this section of the country. Not only is unusual care exercised in buying our bedroom furniture as regards quality of wood, but we watch for all the little details that either make or mar a really good piece of furniture. The three following pieces of bedroom furniture will be found to be the biggest bargains quoted in El Paso this week.

$25.00 Birdseye Maple Dresser $20.00

This dresser has two large drawers and two small ones. Large square mirror. Regular price $25.00; special this week $20.00. If your bedroom lacks a dresser, be sure and investigate this offer. $20.00 is a low price to ask for a plain white maple dresser, and this is a beautiful birdseye maple. Come down town the first thing tomorrow morning and examine this dresser.

GONZALES GUEST OF EL PASOANS

Governor of Chihuahua Is Taken to Cloudercroft for a Banquet.

El Pasoans have developed the banquet idea to such an extent that they are loth to depart from it. Hence, when Madero left for the Mexican capital, they decided that it would be fitting to entertain Abram Gonzales, Madero's new governor of the state of Chihuahua.

A special car was attached to the Cloudercroft train Sunday morning and the governor, escorted by 25 business men of El Paso, made his first trip to the mountain resort. There a banquet was held in the dining room with speeches and plenty.

John M. Wyatt was the toastmaster and he introduced the speakers by calling to the attention of governor Gonzales that the majority of El Pasoans sympathized with the insurgents during their fight.

Governor Gonzales in responding spoke of the hopes of Mexico and the friendly feeling of her people for the United States and especially for El Paso.

Speeches were also made by Capt. Juan Hart, Braulio Hernandez, Col. Jose de la Luz Soto, R. Silberberg, Col. Antonio Villareal and Dr. L. J. Bush.

Dr. Bush said he and others had taken the McGinty "Blue Whistler" from the city hall park and delivered it to Col. Villareal, who turned it over to the governor.

Following the banquet, those in the party took a trip about Cloudercroft in carriages and returned to El Paso on the regular train, arriving at the union station at 10:45 Sunday night.

Those who were in attendance at the banquet were Governor Abram Gonzales, secretary of state Braulio Hernandez, Col. Jose de la Luz Soto, Col. Antonio Villareal, Alator Gomez, Cosme Bengachea, Capt. Juan S. Hart, Samuel Kraker, D. M. Payne, Fred Polman, James Marr, J. M. Wyatt, Robert Silberberg, Cruz Gonzales, Dr. J. J. Bush, Dr. E. R. Carpenter, Vincent Andreas, Robert Kraker, Thos. O'Keefe, E. G. Mustain, Charles Newman, A. H. Silberberg, Schwartz, Adolph Schutz, Edward Watts, Lamar Davis, H. S. Potter, W. Cooley and J. F. Williams.

REYES IS BACK IN VERACRUZ
Future Presidential Candidate of Mexico Returns From Abroad.

Veracruz, Mexico, June 5.—Gen. Bernardo Reyes, who was recalled from Europe to aid in the reestablishment of peace, arrived here Saturday by the steamer Purst Bismarck from Havana.

While not yet an avowed candidate for president, undoubtedly his name will be on the ballot when the election is held. He is popular with the army and can rely politically on what remains of the Diaz machine.

A special train Sunday morning from Mexico City brought a delegation of leading citizens, including representatives of the military and political clubs, to meet the general. A military band and a score of officers in full uniform galloped on the wharf when the steamer was sighted, with a fringe of people on the outskirts. The citizens of Veracruz for the most part stayed at home.

Gen. Reyes went immediately to a hotel, where from his balcony he thanked the small crowd on the pier below for the welcome he received. He will not go to the capital until after Madero reaches there.

Efforts to obtain his presidential platform were eluded. He came home, he said, to use all his influence to assist the work of restoring the country to a normal peace basis. That, he said, was at present the overshadowing duty of every Mexican, great or small.

FEDERALS LOYAL TO NEW GOVERNMENT
Gens. Hernandez and Navarro Go to National Capital.

Gen. Villar, the federal commander at the state capital of Chihuahua, has expressed himself as entirely loyal to the service of the new government. He says he was a soldier of the government when Juarez died, that he still was of the government when Diaz resigned, and that now he will continue to serve the government. This announcement appears to satisfy those who have feared internal trouble in the state.

Gen. Hernandez passed through here yesterday en route to the national capital from Chihuahua. Gen. Navarro has orders to return from El Paso to the national capital, going by Guaymas from here and then by steamer.

GONZALES GOES TO CAPITAL TUESDAY
New Governor of Chihuahua Will Not Be Accompanied by Troops.

Governor Abram Gonzales expects to depart Tuesday for the city of Chihuahua. He has received assurances from Gen. Lauro Villar that there will be no difficulty attached to his entrance into the city.

The trip will be almost informal in its simplicity. The newly appointed governor will travel on the regular train, and perhaps without the form of a private car. With him will go members of his staff, and he probably will be met by Gen. Orozco at some point north of Chihuahua. No insurgent soldiers will escort their former leader, who will be met by representatives of the state and city governments just outside the capital.

DIAZ REMAINS A GENERAL OF MEXICO
Mexico City, Mex., June 5.—The department of war has refused to accept Gen. Diaz's resignation as a major general, granting him instead an indefinite leave of absence.

GEN. DIAZ SAILS FROM HAVANA FOR HAVRE, FRANCE
Havana, Cuba, June 5.—Gen. Porfirio Diaz, who arrived here Saturday evening on the steamer Ypiranga from Veracruz, resumed his voyage yesterday morning, the ship sailing for Havre, France, shortly before noon.

At the last moment, Gen. Diaz received a farewell visit from the Mexican minister, senior Godoy, and representatives of the Cuban government.

HEAVY TRIBUTES LEVIED AT TEPEC

Madero Advises Payment, Saying the Money Will Be Refunded.

Guadalajara, Mexico, June 5.—According to advices received here from Tepec, Martin Espinosa, the insurgent leader who recently took possession of the Tepec capital after its evacuation by governor Ruiz and the federal forces, has levied heavily on the business men of that city. From the Spanish house of Aguirre Suescates, the most important in Tepec, he demanded 20,000 pesos. Before paying the assessment the manager telegraphed Francisco I. Madero, in answer Madero advised the payment, stating that the money would be repaid.

Juan Cienfuegos, formerly prefect of the Compostela district of Tepec, took possession of Compostela in the name of the Madero government a few days ago. He has collected 31,000 pesos from the business men of that town.

Carlos Romero, a well known mining man and ore buyer of Etzatlan, this state, was assessed 500 pesos by Cienfuegos. The insurgent leader, who took that town several days ago, A receipt for the amount was given him by Mota as the representative of the Madero government. This receipt Romero has sent to the federal government, with which he has an account, asking that the sum be placed to his credit.

Ernesto Madero, uncle of Francisco I. Madero, and the new minister of finance, is at the head of the Torreón smelter.

Future of Company in Doubt.
Due to the political changes in Mexico, there is much speculation as to the future of the Compania Becerra, which has been operating for some time in handling the majority of the contracts for public improvements and railroad construction in Mexico. The company was organized by prominent capitalists of Mexico City, members of the party that now appears to be dead politically, and they have had big returns from its operations.

Before the political upheaval in Mexico, the company was practically completed for the construction by the Compania Bancaria of the National's projected line from Matamoros, on the Rio Grande, to Tampico and Veracruz. Some construction machinery was shipped, and the political changes may delay the building of this important railroad.

KENO IN JUAREZ DURING SUNDAY
An American Also Sold Drinks in His Saloon—A Very Quiet Day.

Juarez was quiet on Sunday and but few visitors went over from the American side. One keno game was operating during the absence of governor Gonzales at Cloudercroft and it was doing a good business. The other made no effort to open.

No saloons were open, but Americans, by knocking three times on the front door of an American saloon and showing the proper look of want in their faces, gained admittance and a number of the men were merely admitted. The beer sold at the usual price.

The customs house was closed and none of the state officers were to be seen. Business houses were open and doing a good business; postal card men, also.

Groups of armed men loitered about the houses along Lerdo and Juarez avenues and horses were being fed alfalfa in the front yards of these residences.

A bull fight was held and a parade incident thereto was also on the program.

No effort has been made to repair the structures on Lerdo avenue which were burned during the attack on the city, though the walls of some have crumbled and fallen to the ground.

Close to the river bank, gardens were being planted and the corn again gave the appearance of care and attention, and corn is seen sprouting under irrigation.

"Furnished Rooms for Rent." is the notice on a sign that hangs from a window in the home on Lerdo avenue formerly occupied by Col. Tambores, who was killed during the attack on the city.

Juarez is not yet the same city that it was before the attack, but a strong effort has been made to improve its sanitation, which has succeeded.

NEW OFFICIALS NOW IN NOGALES
The Insurrectos Instal Their Forces and All Is Now Quiet.

Nogales, Ariz., June 5.—About 200 Mexicanists from Cananea have arrived in Nogales, Mexico, and a formal charge of city officials has been made amid much celebrating in the form of putting of bombs, shouting, etc.

Dr. A. Lopez is the new president of the city, and Lic. Minilla, the new district judge. J. M. Maytorena, of Guaymas, and E. H. Gayon will be the candidates for governor and vice governor respectively, the state of Sonora, the elections to be held in August.

Many of the families who came from Sonora to Nogales, Ariz., for safety are returning to their homes and business and Nogales is assuming its normal aspect. Trains are running regularly between Cananea and Nogales, Guaymas and Nogales and Guaymas and Mazatlan.

RURALES FIRE INTO MEXICO CITY MOB.
Mexico City, Mex., June 5.—Rurales sent Julia, a district in the western part of the city, to quell a mob of too enthusiastic adherents of Madero, last night fired into the crowd, wounding several and dispersing the mob.

The direct cause of the shooting was an attempt on the part of the people to prevent the arrest of one of their number.

SIXTY INDIANS JOIN REBEL ARMY OF MOSBY
San Diego, Cal., June 5.—A band of 60 Indians that has been expected for several days to rejoin the Tia Juana Insurrectos, came into Gen. Jack Mosby's camp yesterday and now form part of his force. Mosby has been placed at the head of the Insurrecto army in Lower California.

Insurgent scouts reported that Col. Mayot's eighth battalion of federals left Ensenada several days ago, but nothing is known of its movements.

COL. LOCKE, NAMED TEXAS FIGHTER, IS DEAD

that Taylor did not speak to his son-in-law until after Buena Vista.

Was Twice Speaker.
Col. Locke married in Mississippi and removed to Texas soon after. He was elected speaker of the house of representatives for the years 1888 and 1889. In the following year he was elected a member of the secession convention which voted the state of Texas out of the union, and was chosen to preside over its deliberations because of his knowledge of parliamentary law.

Deposed Sam Houston.
"One of the first things we had to do was to depose governor Sam Houston from the office," said Col. Locke. "Governor Houston and I were good friends. I met him often at church, and admired him greatly. He was a Unionist, however, and the convention determined to depose him. I was a member of the committee which notified the governor of the action of the convention. Knowing Houston as I did, I was chosen to be the spokesman."

"When we arrived governor Houston, who was one of the most courteous men I have ever known, received us. I said: 'Governor Houston, the convention now in session has decided that you cannot work in harmony, therefore this committee has been delegated to inform you that you have been deposed from the office. We, therefore, are under the necessity of asking you to vacate.'

"His position. I have the honor to bid you good morning," and with that he bowed himself from the room. Lieutenant governor Clarke, a southern sympathizer, assumed the governorship and there was no further friction."

Raised a Regiment.
After the ordinance of secession had been passed Mr. Locke went home and was appointed colonel of cavalry. He proceeded at once to raise a regiment of volunteers. In the meantime he had been elected state senator. He wrote governor Clarke that inasmuch as the men of his regiment expected him to command them in the war he would resign as senator, which he did. He served throughout the war, and in 1865 removed to Arkansas, settling at Van Buren. Shortly thereafter he laid out the town of Alma, and is yet known as the "Father of Alma."

Agricultural Commissioner.
In 1887 the Arkansas legislature created the department of mines, manufactures and agriculture, and in the fall of that year Col. Locke was elected the first commissioner. The first of January, in 1888, he organized the present department of agriculture, with W. M. Manville as his deputy.

Two years later he was reelected, and for that term C. A. Nauck was appointed deputy. He removed to Little Rock in 1888, and from that time that city had been his home until he moved to El Paso, His two wives were having died some years previously. Col. Locke married Mrs. Jennie L. Laurie in Little Rock in 1890. She is living. It was partly on account of the state of Mrs. Locke's health that the change in residence was made.

His Mind Very Active.
Col. Locke at 87 was a bit infirm physically, but his mind was the same as that which dominated the house of representatives for two sessions in Texas, and which, to a great extent, shaped the work of the secession convention in 1860. His memory as to far past events was especially clear and distinct. He noted that it is a great deal easier to remember occurrences 50 to 60 years ago than those of the past decade.

His personal recollections of governor Sam Houston, Jefferson Davis, Gen. Anna, Gen. "Zack" Taylor and other leading spirits of those days were especially vivid and entertaining. His remembrance of Col. Bowles, commanding the second Indiana, who deserted on the field of Buena Vista, was not the least pleasing.

In the heat of battle the second Indiana turned tail and fled, but later in the day the third Indiana, under Col. "Joe" Lane, overcame the disgrace upon the state, when it supported the third Mississippi under command of Jefferson Davis.

As to the election as president of the secession convention, Col. Locke was very modest. He declared that another was elected to the position, but that being unfamiliar with parliamentary usages he was not able to govern the convention as he desired. Thereupon Col. Locke was asked to wield the gavel, and two days later he was elected permanent president.

Death Comes Suddenly.
The death of Col. Locke was unexpected. Saturday afternoon he attended the Jeff Davis memorial exercises of the Daughters of the Confederacy, and was apparently in good health. Sunday evening he ate a hearty dinner and went out on the porch to sit awhile. Suddenly he called to Mrs. Locke to bring him a stimulant, and before he could take more than a few sips he was dead.

The funeral will be held Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, interment taking place in El Paso, although it was at first expected that the remains would be shipped to Alma, Ark. The Masons have charge of the services.

Deceased, besides his wife leaves a daughter, Miss Jennie, aged 16, and a son, aged 11, in El Paso. He also leaves a daughter and two sons in Arkansas.

PASSENGER TRAIN HITS OPEN SWITCH; TRAINMEN HURT
Peoria, Ill., June 5.—Inbound passenger train No. 17, with seven coaches, was derailed in an open switch in the yards of the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific this morning, demolishing two local engines which were standing on the track, besides totally wrecking its own engine.

Robert Atkinson, the engineer in charge, was fatally injured, three other trainmen severely hurt. The passengers escaped with bruises and a severe shaking up.

LAWYER O'REILLY IS GIVEN FIVE MONTHS
New York, N. Y., June 5.—Daniel O'Reilly, the lawyer who was convicted of receiving stolen goods in the Hancock bend robbery case, was today sentenced by Justice Davis in the criminal branch of the court to five months in the penitentiary.

Abraham Levy made a plea in his behalf, but district attorney Whitman made no demand for a jail sentence. O'Reilly appeared to be deeply affected by his sentence.

MONEY MAKING IS IMPERILING HOME

Bryan Says Pleasure and Pursuit of Profit Work Harm.

New York, N. Y., June 5.—The American home is being imperiled by neglect of religion, failure to cultivate home life and the pursuit of pleasure and the dollar, according to Wm. J. Bryan.

Mr. Bryan's opinion was sought by the Rev. Christian E. Reiser, who wrote the Nebraskan asking him "What endangers the American Home?"

Mr. Bryan's reply, made public from the pulpit, was as follows:

"Allowing business and pleasure to consume all the time so that none is left for the cultivation of the home life. We are too busy making money and hunting for a good time. Home religion is also neglected."

MRS. WHELOCK (CREIGHTON) GOES TO HUSBAND'S HOME
Mrs. Oscar Wheelock, alias Mrs. Oscar "Creighton," left the city en route for Danvers, Mass., Sunday at 12:45. When interviewed at the train she had nothing to say on the subject of Creighton being identified as Wheelock. She said that she did not believe there was any love affair between her husband and any girl in El Paso, as she thought him to be an honorable man.

The detective who shadowed her to El Paso left yesterday for the coast, having dropped the case, after satisfying himself that Creighton was Wheelock, the Boston and Butte abductor.

TWO ARRESTS MADE OF ALLEGED PISTOL TOTERS
The police are making an effort to put a stop to pistol toting and Sunday night arrested two men on the charge of carrying guns. I. Roberts was arrested on this charge on Utah street, and Jesus Gonzales was arrested at the Stanton street bridge by United States officer Holzman on the same charge.

MAGONISTAS ARE EXECUTED

Tucson, Ariz., June 5.—Twenty-eight Magonistas have been summarily executed in the Altar district near Compa and Altar, according to passengers arriving from there, and all inequities now.

It is said that a Magonista killed in a skirmish, had a note attached to his saddle signed ostensibly by Magon in Los Angeles bidding his men to plunder, rob and devastate the country of the Mexicans.

FEDERAL TROOPS EN ROUTE TO LOWER CALIFORNIA TO FIGHT MAGONISTAS

As the first step in the campaign against the lower California Magonistas, 130 federal soldiers are on their way to the border. In a special train they departed this morning from the city of Chihuahua, and will arrive tomorrow at Ciudad Juarez. The column is in command of Gen. Laque, according to advices received by provisional government officials here.

It is still uncertain that the federal forces will pass through the United States on the way to Lower California, according to governor Gonzales, who as chief of the second military zone, is in charge of the movement. From Juarez, the federals will march directly along the border if the United States government does not grant permission to employ the American railroads.

It was at first planned to employ both federal soldiers and insurgents in the task of clearing up the troublesome colonies of California, but this may be given up since Laque's troop movement may put an end to the independent government affair.

Gen. B. J. Viljoen has received a message from Francisco I. Madero, Jr., relative to the Lower California trouble. "One thousand federals are leaving for Lower California," telegraphs the former provisional president. "On my arrival at the capital, arrangements will be made concerning the sending of our troops."

To Gen. Viljoen, who is to be in charge of the expedition for the provisional government, comes another message from J. M. Maytorena, just installed as governor of Sonora, who writes that conditions in Lower California are very bad.

CALIFORNIA SOCIALISTS TO DIE HARD

Los Angeles, Cal., June 5.—According to Capt. Louis James, of the Socialist Insurrecto forces in Lower California, the mission which caused the disappearance recently of "general" C. Rhys Price from Tia Juana has been accomplished and by this time there will have reached the coast near Tia Juana an expedition consisting of 200 men, two loaded field pieces and 20,000 rounds of ammunition sent from Los Angeles.

Capt. James declares that a vessel conveying these reinforcements to the Tia Juana garrison departed from the purpose of having a surgical operation performed on her infant son.

NEW MINISTER FROM MEXICO TO UNITED STATES
Mexico City, Mex., June 5.—Announcement is made of the appointment of Gilberto Crespo y Martinez as ambassador to Washington to succeed Manuel de Zamacona y Indian, who probably will be returned to London as the government's financial agent.

Since Mr. Zamacona's appointment as ambassador, the London post has been filled by Pablo Macedo. Macedo resigned last week.

Ambassador Crespo is now minister to Austria. He was formerly minister to Cuba.
